Meet... Louis Tomlinson

Louis was born December 24, 1991 in Doncaster, United Kingdom. He first started his career when he also auditioned for the X-Factor in 2009, and was put into One Direction. His fame grew very quickly and One Direction was considered the biggest boy band in history. The band as a group released five albums and received many awards for their outstanding music. The band went on a hiatus in 2015 and since then Louis has released his first solo album called Walls. Louis has been through some pretty tough times in his life including the death of his mother and one of his younger sisters. He, to this day, remains an inspiration for all of his fans.

Let's go back to the beginning...

After meeting each other in 2010 since both being on the X-Factor, Louis & Harry hit it off very quickly, easily becoming friends. This image displayed shows Louis (red beanie) and Harry sharing a hug when they first found out that they were going to be in a boy band together. You can tell there is already chemistry between the two.

Let's Talk Eye Contact

Let's Talk Eye Contact

An iconic factor to understanding the bond between Louis & Harry is simply by noticing their unbreakable eye contact during interviews, concerts, video diaries, etc. Fans call it the “creepy love stare”.

Anyone can clearly notice the way that these two look at each other can be compared to nobody else. There is a certain glint in their eyes when they see each other that can never be taken away.

LYRIC CHANGES

Louis and Harry tend to do this thing on stage at their concerts where they change the lyrics of the song and sing something that has to do with the other person.

There are so many so here are some of the best examples...

BLUE & GREEN

The two colors that represent the relationship between Harry Styles & Louis Tomlinson are blue and green. These colors have been chosen to represent them due to the colors of their microphones, eyes, and other coincidences involving these colors.

Ed Sheeran Concert

B&G PROOF #1

In an Ed Sheeran concert in 2018 during his hit single “Thinking Out Loud” Ed Sheeran displayed a montage of two boys with the background colors being blue and green. These pictures look familiar huh?

TO BE NOTED: Ed Sheeran is a close friend with the boys, writing multiple of One Direction’s most popular hits.

Harry Styles' Keys B&G PROOF #2

The paparazzi captured this picture of Harry Styles leaving a local coffee shop where you can clearly see he has two different keys, one blue and one green.

Heart Emojis B&G PROOF #3

Blue and green hearts, for the longest time have been used by Larry shippers. Matty Selley (Harry's Cousin) decided to respond to an account named "oops_met_hi_28" with a blue heart after the account commented on one of his posts with green heart emojis. Molly Hawkins (Harry's creative director) posted Harry's Rolling Stones cover on her instagram story. She could have chosen any other heart emojis but she chose to do alternating blue and green hearts. This has been done on many occasions with people associate with the boys.

HONORABLE MENTIONS:

THE RAINBOW BEARS

The rainbow bears are extremely important to the timeline of Larry Stylinson. All of the events that surround the bears are considered some of the most concrete evidence that we have to this day. It all started on the Where We Are tour in 2014. Some fans threw this rainbow teddy bear on stage just for fun. It showed up at their next show with tape on it, set up somewhere in the stadium. This is when the bear got its name, RBB, standing for Rainbow Bondage Bear.

The Rainbow Bears

RBB then started to show up at every show on the tour. It was always dressed in a certain outfit, and it became a game for the fans to try and find it at shows. (The outfits came in 2015 after the bondage gear was taken off) As the game went along, fans started to notice little easter eggs that the bear had been dropping. Let's start with example number one...

PROOF #1: JUDY GARLAND

Judy Garland was an American actress and one of the most well known actresses/celebrities of all time. She is most well known for her role as “Dorothy” in the original “Wizard of Oz”. Alongside being a well known actress, she also is known as one of, if not the biggest gay icon of all time. Around 1967, Garland was an icon to many gay men and her problems mirrored many of their problems, as in that time, gay men were very very widely unaccepted. Judy Garland was beat up and dehumanized for being a role model for gay men, but she continued to push through. She is known as the “Elvis of homosexuals”. During this time period, if someone wanted to come out as gay without saying it directly, a popular phrase that was used was “I’m a friend of Judy” or of Dorothy. Now how does this relate to the Rainbow Bear?

PROOF #1: JUDY GARLAND

In August of 2014, the Rainbow Bear made the first ever tweet on its own original twitter account:

The tweet reads: “Of course I love you..No I haven’t been drinking..I stayed in and watched a Judy Garland film..hic!”

That was the first of many Judy Garland referencing tweets such as this one that reads: “It’s all coming back now. Gin. Judy Garland. Drunk phone calls....”

Shortly after these tweets were released, the Rainbow Bear twitter account was suspended.

PROOF #1: JUDY GARLAND

After the account had been taken down, the bear was gone for awhile until the OTRA tour started back up in 2015. In this picture you can see Rainbow Bondage Bear and SBB (who we will cover soon) reading the book about Judy Garland as a gay icon. (P.S. notice the color of the jewels on the crown and the rainbow cup!

PROOF #1: JUDY GARLAND

This is a picture of the Rainbow Bear on the Judy Garland hollywood star posted on their social media. Keep in mind that this picture was posted on the day One Direction was on Jimmy Kimmel and the street where those stars were found was closed down for filming... who could have gotten this picture then??

PROOF #1: JUDY GARLAND

At another show, the bears are seen with a photo of Judy Garland in a frame, with blue and green stickers placed on the bears' feet. Wonder who that could be?

PROOF #2: RBB & SBB [+ THE BOOKS]

For a while now, the fans had known about Rainbow Bondage Bear, aka Mr. Bear, and then one day on the OTRA tour, a second, smaller bear showed up at one of the shows out of nowhere. The fans named this one Sugar Bondage Bear. So now we had Rainbow Bondage Bear, and Sugar Bondage Bear which stuck together throughout the tour at each show, and became an iconic duo.

PROOF #2: RBB & SBB [+ THE BOOKS]

Once these bears had been put together for a few shows, one specific show came where RBB and SBB were reading a book. This book is called “All You Get Is Me” written by Katie Lang. This book is an autobiography about Katie Lang, a lesbian who when coming to terms with her sexuality, she goes through all the fearful emotions of how publicly displaying her sexuality could ruin her career. Sound familiar?

Who was behind this all?

As time progressed with RBB & SBB, fans wondered who was behind the whole game with the bears. The costumes were becoming expensive, and a lot of effort went into the social media posts, as well as the books, etc. A few times, the drummer for One Direction, Josh Devine had taken pictures with the bears, so people thought it was him at first, until it made no sense why he would be putting this much effort into the bears, and signs began to appear that it was Harry and Louis.

Was it Harry and Louis?

Something interesting that was noticed where fans started to speculate Louis and Harry were behind this was when RBB was at a show holding an ice cream cone, and SBB was sitting in a mcdonald's fry container. The night before this show, Harry and Louis were spotted by fans in separate locations, Harry in a baskin robbins, Louis at a mcdonald's.

PROOF #2: RBB & SBB [+ THE BOOKS]

At yet another show, RBB was spotted reading an autobiography about Betty Davis, another LGBTQ+ icon who drag queens would dress up as.

PROOF #2: RBB & SBB [+ THE BOOKS]

This photo is of RBB reading a book called “All Of Me” written by Claire Richards. This book is basically about a woman who started her music career in her teens and made a big breakout in her 20’s with the band ‘Steps’ and talks about her journey of being painfully forced to stay thin and starve herself and how she sank into a hole of depression while being in the band. Then it shows her recovery to a happy ending after being on her own.

PROOF #2: RBB & SBB [+ THE BOOKS]

In these photos, RBB and SBB are spotted with a Danny La Rue book, who is a famous drag queen. Shortly after these pictures were taken, we got a photo of RBB with actual drag queens, and it was confirmed by the drag queens in response to an article about Louis and Harry bringing the bears to the drag queens, that the bears had been brought there.

PROOF #3: THE BEARS GET MARRIED

One of the most iconic bear moments was at one show when the bears got married. With the bears in their marriage outfits is a picture of a man in a frame named Larry Grayson. The photo is signed by him and it says “Love, Larry” The picture was posted and taken down before the boys went on stage that night. Keep in mind this picture was posted on September 24th, 4 days before the 28th which is when Harry and Louis allegedly got married.

PROOF #4: BEARS COMING OUT OF HIBERNATION

One day, after a new twitter account for the bears had been made, a countdown started with each day, a 5, 4, 3, 2, and 1 had been posted each day, and at the end of the countdown, a bears coming out of hibernation picture was released, and then a picture of the bears where RBB is wearing a jersey from a soccer team Louis and Harry both had said they fully supported.

PROOF #4: BEARS COMING OUT OF HIBERNATION

Then, later that night at a show, there were direct blue and green spotlights shining down on RBB and SBB during the concert. Take that as you will.

PROOF#5: SUNSET BOULEVARD

The night after the spotlight show, this picture was taken. This photo is of a man who was confirmed to be one of Harry's childhood friends. The picture is taken in front of the infamous orange wall, that is the color of the gay bar, Sunset Boulevard. Later that night, a picture of Louis with a fan was taken where the Sunset Boulevard bar is in the back of the picture.

PROOF #5: FABULOUS CERTIFICATE

In this photo, RBB and SBB are photographed with a certificate of “Being Fabulous” which was previously tweeted in the same format as Harry tweets, and then signed in handwriting that looks a lot like Harry’s.

ONE DIRECTION ASKED ABOUT RBB

<https://youtu.be/CRIuADfFKU8>

- It is important to notice in this video how when the question is asked, everyone immediately turns to Louis.

PROOF #6: LOCATION HOME [FINAL PROOF]

The RBB and SBB official twitter account had changed their location on twitter to home just a couple hours before Louis himself had tweeted a home emoji.

TAKE A BREAK!!!!

THERE IS STILL TONS TO DISCUSS, BUT FOR NOW, LET'S TAKE A QUICK BREAK FOR SOME BRAIN REST... IT'S IMPORTANT!!!!

Coordinating Tattoos

#1: Rose & Dagger

A rose and a dagger are two common symbols that you see together that complete each other, symbolizing life with the rose meaning love, beauty, vitality, and friendship, whereas the dagger stands for death, betrayal, destruction, and insidiousness.

EXAMPLE

Coordinating Tattoos

#2: Heart & Arrow

Similar to the rose & dagger, a heart and arrow are also two very common symbols seen together. Typically, a heart with an arrow through is a way of indicating being lovestruck or insanely in love.

Coordinating Tattoos

#3: Ship & Compass

Another tattoo Harry and Louis have is the compass and the ship. These two tattoos can pretty much obviously be seen that they go with the theme of one tattoo completing the other. The biggest thing about these tattoos though is that Louis compass is pointing towards home, which is commonly used in their lyrics.

Coordinating Tattoos

#4: Hi & Oops!

“Hi” and “Oops!” are both tattoos that Harry & Louis have. With both of these tattoos being in the same scraggly handwriting, it is told that hi and oops were the boys first words to each other when they met.

Coordinating Tattoos

#5: It is what it is & Butterfly

Many people are confused on how Louis' "It is what it is" tattoo and how Harry's butterfly tattoo go together. At the tattoo parlor where they got them, they were shown together as options. And they got them just days apart.

Coordinating Tattoos

#6: Anchor & Rope

Yet another coordinating tattoo the boys share is the anchor and the rope tattoo. This is just another self explanatory example of how these two tattoos go together.

#7: Nails & Horseshoe

Louis has a tattoo of a horse shoe that's missing three nails. And Harry has a tattoo of three nails. Enough said.

MORE HONORABLE MENTIONS:

LARRY ANTHEMS

This next section is going to go over the songs made by One Direction and by Louis and Harry individually that are about Louis and Harry's relationship.

Song #1: They Don't Know About Us

Released in 2012 on the Take Me Home album.
One Direction was never allowed to perform this live...

- “They don’t know about the things we do, they don’t know about the I love you’s” (They have to hide their relationship)
- “People say we shouldn’t be together, too young to know about forever” (Their management did not want them to be together)
- “They don’t know what we do best it’s between me and you our little secret”
- “I wanna tell the world that you’re mine”

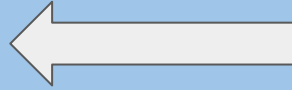

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=unTus4ukPB0>

Song #2: Strong

As you can see
in this picture

Louis and Harry's tattoos match up perfectly to the lyrics of the song, released
on the Midnight
Memories album

Writer- Louis

Song #3: If I Could Fly

Released in 2015 on the MITAM album.

This is presumed to be a love song written to Lou from Harry.

- “If I could fly, I’d be coming right back home to you”
- “I’m missing half of me when we’re apart”
- “For your eyes only, I’ll show you my heart” (nodding to the fact their relationship is very private)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5pe65gWJLxI>

Writer- Harry

Song #4: Happily

Released in 2013 on the Midnight Memories album. The lyrics give the idea that he is jealous of Louis' "relationship" with his "girlfriend" Eleanor Calder. The song is very much about him wanting to have a relationship with Louis.

- "You don't understand what you do to me when you hold his hand" (Eleanor)
- "Made it so you had to walk away"
- "I just want it to be you and I forever"

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fTgJx-zmpM0>

Writer- Harry

Song #5: 18

Written by Ed Sheeran and released in 2014 on the album Four. Ed is super close with the boys so it's pretty clear he wrote it about them.

- “I have loved you since we were 18” (they first met when Louis was 18)
- “A long way from the playground” (the playground being the X Factor)
- “I wanna love like you made me feel when were 18” (They weren't forced to hide their feelings as much when they were younger)

The lyric change is what makes this song so special:

<https://youtu.be/OpP-w5WNIJo>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VRpzJabYIQQ>

Song #6: Something Great

Released in 2013 on the MM album, Something Great contains many lyrics hinting at Larry especially Louis' solo at the end of the song.

- “I want you here with me like how I pictured it so I don’t have to keep imagining” (They aren’t able to be free how they want)
- “The script was written and I could not change a thing, I want to tear it all to shreds and start again” (They had a whole “script” they needed to follow to keep their secret)
- “You’re all I want, so much it’s hurting” (harry wrote this part specifically for lou)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CuzYCpowLcc>

Writer- Harry

Song #7: No Control

Released in 2014 on the album Four. This is one of the less innocent songs that One Direction has released. Take these lyrics and do with them as you please ;) And keep in mind that this was one of Harry's favorite songs to perform.

- “I can’t contain this anymore, I’m all yours, I’ve got no control”
- “And I don’t care it’s obvious, I just can’t get enough of you”
- “And the heat, where you lay, I could stay right here and burn in it all day”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pW7W8hbdhX8>

Writer- Louis

Song #8: Home

This song was written for the Made in the A.M. album but didn't make the final cut. Louis then leaked the song, soon after and they released it as a single. People think he leaked it because it meant so much to him and his relationship with Harry.

- "So many nights I thought it over, I told myself I kinda liked her but there was something missing in her eyes." (he tried to like another girl but something was missing)

- "But you say you feel the same, could we ever be enough? Baby we could be enough"

- "When you're lost, I'll find the way, I'll be your light, you'll never feel like you're alone, I'll make this feel like home" (they are each other's home)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=mpWY4ck6yr4>

Writer- Louis

Song #9: Olivia

Released on the MITAM album, the song itself isn't thought to be directly pointed to Larry but there's a story that goes with it. First, Louis and Harry both tweeted #olive at the same time which is another way to say you love someone without having to actually say love. And it is also theorized that Harry wrote Olivia with the intention that the name sounded like "I love ya". This shows that maybe the boys found different ways to say I love you without exposing themselves. Pretty cute.

Writer- Harry

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jD6C71xKWSs>

Better Than Words

The song itself doesn't really have much to do with Larry itself other than Louis co-wrote the song possibly with Harry in mind. The important part is the duet between Harry and Louis, listen for yourself.

Song #10: Two Ghosts

Released in 2017 on Harry's first solo album.

- “Same lips red same eyes blue same white shirt couple more tattoos” (hints at the fact that louis has blue eyes and many tattoos)
- “But I can’t touch what I see”
- “We’re not who we used to be, we’re just two ghosts standing in the place of you and me” (they used to be more free)
- “Trying to remember how it feels to have a heartbeat”
- It is important to mention that for weeks after this song was released, Louis was spotted publicly & on his instagram wearing white shirts :)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iSqLLiuHicw>

Song #11: Sweet Creature

Released in 2017 on HS1. One lyric in the song is “I know when we started, two hearts in one home” and Harry lived with Louis in a place called Princess Park in 2012. He also talks about how they were “young” and “didn’t know where they were going”. Other lyrics that connect to them are...

- “It’s hard when we argue, we’re both stubborn I know”
- “I always think about you and how we don’t speak enough
- “Wherever I go, you bring me home”

The interview where Harry is asked if sweet creature is about Louis: <https://youtu.be/qjw3uBYtECE>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8uD6s-X3590>

Song #12: From the Dining Table

Released in 2017 on HS1. This song and Louis song “Too Young” also go hand and hand because of L’s lyric “Face to face at the kitchen table, this is everything we’ve waited for. Now we can finally have the conversation, that I wish we would’ve had before”.

- “Woke up the girl who looks just like you, I almost said your name”
- “Why won’t you ever say what you wanna say, even my phone misses your call by the way”
- “We haven't spoke since you went away, comfortable silence is so overrated”

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=1ZxF\_nA1SxQ

Song #13: Golden

Released in 2019 on his second album Fine Line. Not included in the song, there are some unreleased lyrics that Harry sang on tour that people assume are about Louis & his struggles with being open and true to himself, which people kind of associate with Harry's persona.

- “Golden, golden, he is broken, and i’m hoping someday he’ll open, and I know that you’re scared because I’m so open”

Unreleased lyrics: <https://youtu.be/I1ErtAJxMEM>

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=P3cffdsEXXw>

Song #14: Canyon Moon

Released on Fine Line. The song has major references to Larry...

- “Two weeks and I’ll be home” (L and H don’t go two weeks without seeing each other)
- “Through Paris, all through Rome” (In an interview they both said those were the most romantic)
- “I’m going, oh, I’m going home”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TQT3a1qCUuM>

Song #15: Falling

Another track from Fine Line. This song is very much about Harry and his own self growth but in the song he brings up a place called the Beachwood Cafe. “And the coffee’s out, at the Beachwood Cafe”. There are many Larry theories around the cafe, including Louis’ tattoo shown in the coordinating tattoos.

- “I’m in my bed and you’re not here”
- “And I’m well aware I write too many songs about you”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=olGSAVOkkTI>

Song #16: Habit

Released in 2020, Louis Tomlinson wrote this song on his first ever solo album. These lyrics are very specific to Louis and Harry's relationship

- “I took some time because I ran out of energy of playing someone I heard I’m supposed to be”
- “And it’s been ages different stages come so far from princess park”

(Louis and Harry lived together in princess park)

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LIn4AvhaeP4>

Song #17: Too Young

This song reflects back to Louis' days when he was younger and he references to times that would only fit with one person...

- “We were too young to know we had everything”
- “I’ve been looking back a lot lately me and you is all i’ve ever known”
- “Oh I can’t believe I gave into the pressure when they said a love like this would never last”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZRoS5ZtHYRM>

Song #18: Always You

The first lyrics of the song are “I went to Amsterdam without you and all I could do was think about you”. He wrote this song right after he had announced that he went on a trip to Amsterdam with his “girlfriend” Eleanor. Think about that one.

- “Should’ve never let you go”
- “I’m wasting my time when it was always you”
- “I went to so many places, looking for you in the faces”
- “Walked through my door but it felt nothing like home, cuz you’re not home.”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZSfVtcHpgTQ>

Song #19: We Made It

This song seems to be talking about Louis and Harry in their early One Direction days and how they had a lot of pressure on them but they still made it through.

- “We were only kids just tryna work it out wonder what’d they’d think if they could see us now.”
- “Don’t know why they put all of this on us we’re so young, done a pretty good job dealing with it all”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XWXRh6icAzQ>

Song #20: Just a Little Bit of Your Heart

In 2014 Harry wrote this song for Ariana for her album “My Everything”. She said she felt bad taking the song because it was so personal to Harry. The lyrics are pretty loud...

- “I can’t even think straight but I can tell, you were just with her, and I’ll still be a fool, I’m a fool for you”
- “I know I’m not your only but at least I’m one, I heard a little love is better than none”
- “I don’t ever tell you how I really feel, ‘cause I can’t find the words to say what I mean”

Song #21: Friends

Written and released in 2017 by Ed Sheeran, many fans think that he wrote this song directly for Louis and Harry. Pretty much the whole song could relate to them but the most prominent lyrics could be...

- “But your eyes will lead me straight back home”
- “We just try to keep those secrets in a lie”
- “They’ll never know what we’ve been through”

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ElJOYR87Kus>

Song #22: Girl Crush

This song is originally sang by the band Little Big Town. It was written in the perspective of a girl talking about her ex's new girlfriend. Saying she's jealous of her and wishes she could be her. When Harry sings this he sings it with so much emotion and there's no doubt he has a personal connection to the song.

- “I want everything she has”
- “I wanna taste her lips, yeah ‘cause they taste like you”

Song #23: Secret Love Song

In 2015 Little Mix released this song. It's never been confirmed that it was written for anything to do with L & H but considering they are friends with Little Mix it makes this song seem very personal to their relationship. The whole song is about being in a secret relationship hidden from the public and wishing they could be open.

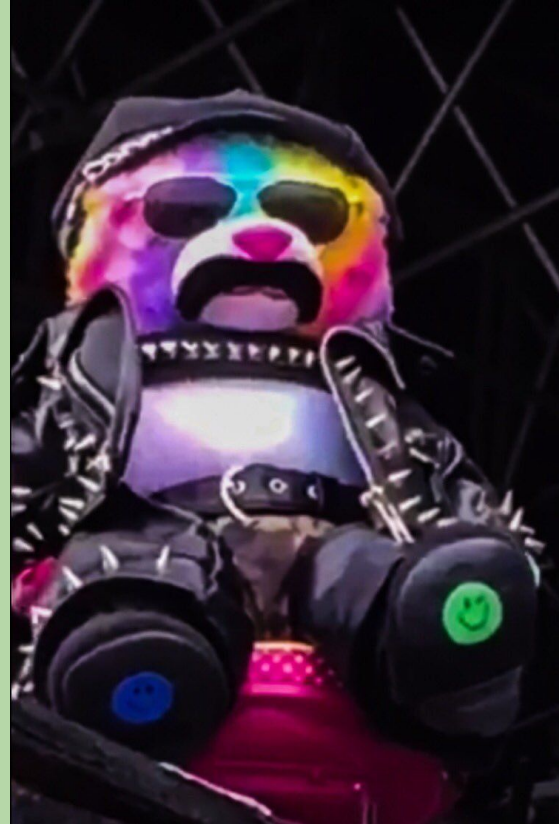

- “We keep behind closed doors”
- “You and I both have to hide”
- “Why can't I say that I'm in love? I wanna shout it from the rooftops”
- “I don't wanna live love this way, I don't wanna hide us away. I wonder if it ever will change. I'm living for that day, someday”

Song #23: Secret Love Song [EXTRA]

On August 27, 2016, louis had arrived in the UK just days prior to the last Little Mix concert of their tour where RBB made an appearance!

Song #24: Don't Let Me Go

Harry wrote this song in 2013 and never released it. The lyrics are definitely partly about how fame hit him so hard so quickly and how he's being "blinded by the lights". But the song also feels like a love song, which could easily be about Louis.

- "I saw in the corner there is a photograph, no doubt in my mind it's a picture of you, it lies there alone in it's bed of broken glass, this bed was never made for two"
- "Seems like these days I watch you from afar, just trying to make you understand, I'll keep my eyes wide open"
- "Don't let me go (cause I'm tired of feeling alone)(cause I'm tired of sleeping alone)"

Video Diaries

When the band was first formed on the X Factor they did these things called video diaries. They would answer fans questions and mess around and make jokes. Most of the time Louis and Harry were sitting next to each other and you could tell they already had a lot of chemistry. There are so many things that we could unpack about the videos so here is a quick video that shows the highlights!

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FKCP-IPKHXQ>

One thing to point out about the video diaries though is this. They got a question that asked if they could be any celebrity who would it be. Louis said he would be Susan Boyle which is super random and Harry said he would want to be David Hasselhoff which is also really random. When Harry says that he looks at Louis and they both laugh. It turns out that not too long before that, Susan Boyle had admitted she had a crush on David Hasselhoff... weird.

Harry's "If I Could Fly" Performance

<https://youtu.be/RKLObLEE8PU>

In New York in 2018, Harry Styles performed the song If I Could Fly which was written by him and performed by the band in 2015. Many fans speculated this song was written about Louis. That same night, Louis had left an award show early, around the time this concert started. The picture beside Harry shows someone in the VIP boxes where Harry was looking during Louis' solo verse in the original song. He looked at those boxes the same way he used to look at Louis.

Wellington

On April 22, 2012 all the members of One Direction went to a local bar in Wellington, New Zealand. There was a group of fans outside the bar filming them. Harry and Louis seemed to be close the whole night. One of the fans even caught a video of Louis yelling to Harry “boyfriend” and they went and hugged each other. Some people say they may have even kissed for a brief moment but tried to cover it up with a hug.

G-A-Y Bar

On September 17, 2011 One Direction performed at the G-A-Y Bar in London. The whole night, Louis and Harry seem so happy and high energy, possibly because they are in a gay bar so they feel comfortable. This is probably the happiest Louis has ever looked when he was performing on stage. There are also claims that people saw they kissing at the bar later that night but there's no proof. This was an amazing night for the boys.

Leeds Festival

We don't know exactly what happened at the Leeds festival, but it has been presumed to be a very monumental time in their relationship. On August 27th, 2011, Harry and Louis went to the Leeds Festival in England, just the two of them. After that, harry kept his wristband on from the festival for as long as he could until it fell off on stage at one of their shows. He tied it onto his bag and later got a tattoo saying "I can't change" in the place of where the wristband was on his wrist. It's clear that something big may have happened between them at the festival.

Harry Says His First Crush Was Louis

In an interview, Harry is asked who his first real crush was and he straight up says “Louis Tomlinson”. Then the interviewer asks how Louis feels about him and he said it was mutual. Even if he was joking it’s still adorable and has to be mentioned!

The Dressing Room Photo

On June 29, 2018 Harry posted the photo on the bottom on his instagram. It was taken in his dressing room while he was at a show in Indianapolis. If you look closely you can see a yellow sweatshirt and white tennis shoes on the floor of the dressing room. Louis was photographed wearing the same exact outfit on that same day.

Tour Bus/ Titanic Incident

In 2013, fans were hanging out around where the 1D tour buses were. They saw that Louis and Harry were on one of the buses alone. Later the picture of Harry's hand on the window was taken. They eventually got off the bus and Louis was seen with scratches on his back... Later on Harry tweeted "Everyone has a 'Titanic for the first time' face". If you don't know what that means here you go...

The Bandana Project

In august 2015, One Direction fans started a project where they asked those who attend the boys' concert to wear different color bandanas representing which member of the band is their favorite. The boys knew about this and even talked about it at some shows. During that time Harry wore a blue bandana to one of the concerts, Louis color was blue. He wore the blue bandana for months straight and has been seen wearing blue bandanas ever since then, including in late 2020.

BANDANA PROJECT!

For the US Tour we decided that it would be fun for all of America to participate in doing something. Many are against wearing a certain color or type of clothing because you want to be your own person! So we've come up with a fun dress code that is super simple and super cheap! You can wear a certain type of bandana (wherever you would like) to symbolize what kind of girl you are. Feel free to tie dye or wear multiple bandanas to show off your love for more than one member! The bandana colors match their mic colors!

MORE HONORABLE MENTIONS:

Dallas

In 2012 the band went to Dallas, Texas for a show and promo. The whole time they were there, Louis and Harry were with each other pretty much the whole time. After that whispering picture was taken they had a break before their next thing they had to do and people think the boys went and “did the nasty”. By the way they look afterwards it’s pretty obvious something went on. Harry has glassy eyes, swollen lips, messy hair, and has flushed cheeks. Then Louis hair is messy and they're both sweaty. Nice one boys.

Dallas

They went and preformed out on a baseball field and there's so much content from that. Overall it was a big day for Larry.

Why doesn't Larry just come out already?

Allow me to introduce you to....

The logo for SYCO MUSIC. The word "SYCO" is in large, bold, white letters with a gold outline and a 3D effect. Below it, the word "MUSIC" is written in smaller, gold, sans-serif capital letters.

Modest!

So... What is “Modest!” Management?

“Modest!” is a management company founded in 2003 by Richard Griffiths and Harry Magee. This management company works with some of the most popular bands in the world, and is well known for partnering with One Direction. The management handles everything from writing, recording, touring, brand partnerships, merchandise, endorsements, theatre, television, and publicity. So they basically have full control. Modest is very unpopular amongst the entire 1D fandom because of the way that they harshly overworked the boys, took full control of them, mistreated them, and worst of all, did not allow Larry. AT ALL.

Okay, so what is Syco Music? And who's that dude in the picture?

Syco music is a record label founded by Simon Cowell in 2002. One Direction was put under a strict contract with Syco Music that partnered with Modest management, which added to the mistreatment of the boys.

And that man goes by the name of Simon Cowell. Simon Cowell is a tv personality that has been starring as a judge on shows like the X-Factor and America's Got Talent for years. He put One Direction together in 2010 after seeing them individually on the X-Factor, then established bad relationships with the boys down the road due to his manipulative ruling over One Direction.

Management Takes Control

Very quickly after One Direction hit the top of the charts and continue to rise in fame, the control of Modest! And Syco Music escalated. The boys produced 5 albums with 5 tours in 5 years. They would go from one event to another, back to back, never having any breaks for five years straight. As you can imagine, this took a toll on both the boys physical & mental health. This included eating disorders, depression, suicidal concerns, and many more for some of the boys. They were forced to perform above anything they were going through. They had no say in most of the things that they did.

So how does this affect Larry?

Great question. Way back from the start, fans quickly began to notice how close Louis and Harry were with each other since day one, and began to speculate a possible relationship. Management took control immediately by putting this to an end because they did not want any career to be ruined if people found out there was a homosexual relationship in the band, especially since they put the boys on this pedestal as womanizers and were public images of a good looking group of boys that all the girls go crazy over.

Management put an end to Larry conspiracies by painting this narrative that the Larry Stylinson rumors “ruined their friendship” and caused Louis and Harry to hate each other which is simply not true.

Times That Management Didn't Let Them Be Together:

In this first video you can see Harry ask Louis where he wants to sit. Louis then says “next to you”. Harry turns to management and says something and you can hear a man say “you can’t sit together”.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ttnbANqabao>

There was also another time where Louis and Harry were both walking to get into the same car but the guards took both of them to a seperate car. The two of them looked back at each other visibly upset they couldn't sit together. There's no reason to split them up unless management is trying to hide something.

The Contract

There's a wide spread theory that Louis Tomlinson was forced to sign a contract that would keep him from being his true self in the public eye. People say that the night One Direction performed at the G-A-Y bar in 2011, Simon Cowell flew Louis out to L.A. for some "business". After that, things about him started to change. Louis was always known as the goofy one of the group and always had that bubbly attitude that the fans adored. People noticed that after that night, that part of Louis started to fade. And it wasn't at a natural rate that a teenage boy would mature at, it seemed forced, and sad.

The Contract

The other suspected part of the contract is that management was forcefully closeting Louis. Sony Music has a history of closeting artists to “protect their reputation and career”. You wouldn’t think that he would agree to something like that but it’s likely he was blackmailed and pretty much had no choice other than to sign it, to “protect” him and his bandmates. If you're wondering why Harry didn’t need to sign this contract as well, it’s believed that Louis took the fall for them because he was the older of the two and wanted to protect Harry from signing his life away. After this, Harry and Louis pretty much never acted the same around each other and had to deny any claims about them, when it was clear that’s not what they wanted to be doing. They would simply look at each other during an interview and have to look away. It’s heartbreaking. Nobody deserves to live a lie like that.

X FACTOR CLOSETING

On October 16 of 2020, Lloyd Daniels, who was a former contestant on the X Factor tweeted about how he was not allowed to come out as gay when he was on the show. There is also a video of Simon Cowell's PR manager saying that if one of their "clients" happened to be gay they would most likely put them in a long term relationship with someone of the opposite gender to cover it up. That leads us into our next big topic...

INTRODUCTION TO BEARDS

This is a very important yet complicated topic. Beards are people who are used in the industry to have a fake relationship with a closeted celebrity. It's more common than you may think. While Sony has a history of closeting celebrities, they often use beards to cover it up. People think that this is the case for both Harry and Louis. There are ongoing debates on whether or not any of these relationships were real or not but we will be giving our reasoning for why they may not be.

(There are multiple people we could talk about but we are only talking about the two main people)

BEARD #1: TAYLOR SWIFT

Dating rumors first arose in 2012 between Harry Styles & Taylor Swift, and they officially got together as a “couple” for only a few short months. The timing and setup of this relationship was perfectly described as a PR or a public relationship which is commonly used in the industry to benefit the careers of both artists. This was perfect for both Taylor and Harry who were benefiting from the publicity of the relationship, having Swift & Styles being two of the most popular artists at the time. The relationship was short, and looked perfect to the public eye.

BEARD #1: TAYLOR SWIFT

So why Taylor Swift? As previously mentioned, Taylor Swift was and still is one of the most popular artists of all time. At the specific time in their relationship, there were rumors floating around about Taylor Swift possibly dating a woman, as well as the rumors about Harry dating Louis. With LGBTQ+ relationships not being as widely accepted as they are today, it made perfect sense for the teenage popstar who was painted as a womanizer for young teen girls and a teenage popstar who writes break up songs about boys to be together so the timeline would fall perfectly in place. They would be together for a little bit, get the publicity they needed, and then breakup so Taylor could make music about it for her fans. It just made sense.

BEARD #1: TAYLOR SWIFT

Later on in 2014 after the two had split, Taylor Swift had released the hit single “Style” which alone in the name of the song is referencing to Harry. This song perfectly describes the relationship and how it was set up in the public eye as this perfect PR. The chorus reads “You got that James Dean daydream look in your eye and I got that red lip classic thing that you like and when we go crashing down we come back every time ‘cause we never go out of style we never go out of style, you got that long hair slicked back white t-shirt and I got that good girl faith and a tight little skirt and when we go crashing down we come back every time ‘cause we never go out of style we never go out of style” This song sets up how viewed by society they were set up as the perfect couple. And a little sidenote, she related him to James Dean (an actor in the 1950’s) who many people considered to be a gay icon.

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

Eleanor Calder is a woman who has been the biggest speculation as a beard. Meeting in 2011, Eleanor and Louis dated up until 2015 when they broke up, and then got back together early in 2017. Eleanor and Louis met when Louis was 20 years old, and he was 18 years old when he met Harry after auditioning for the x factor. This is significant for when Louis changes the lyrics to say “I have loved him since we were 18.” <https://youtu.be/a6RckfxUZK4>

Fans have always speculated that Louis and Eleanor have had a strange relationship, so let's look at that...

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

Let's start with social media. Now to start, people like to argue that the lack of posts with Louis and Eleanor is because Louis does not go on social media that often. Which is true, but not entirely true. He still comes on occasion. It is also important to note that Eleanor is an influencer. She updates her social media almost everyday, because she has to. Now let's take a look at how frequently they are on one another's instagrams.

Out of 389 posts, Eleanor is featured on Louis' instagram 2 times.

Out of 576 posts, Louis is featured on Eleanor's instagram 13 times.

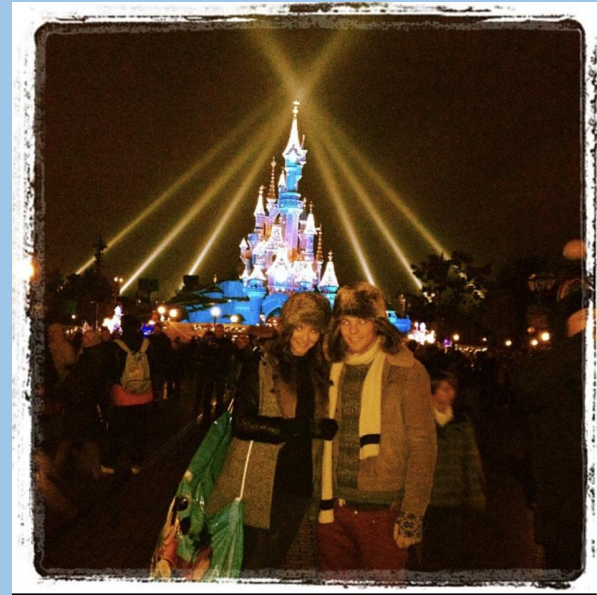

Keep in mind her ex boyfriend Max Hurd is featured about 52 times.

NOTE:

Recently, Eleanor unarchived over 5 pictures of her and Max that were previously taken down.

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

These are the only two pictures on Louis' instagram of Eleanor and him over the past 9 years that they have supposedly been together.

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

Let's talk CWPSMWSHM.

What does that stand for?

Chicken wrapped in parma ham stuffed with mozzarella with a side of homemade mash.

Harry Styles tweeted this picture of Louis on December 3, 2010 and captioned it “Louis’ first ever cooking experience ;)”

This meal was the first dinner Louis had ever cooked, and Louis describes it multiple times as his first ever romantic cooking experience for his girlfriend. Louis met Eleanor in 2011, and Eleanor is vegan. Let that sink in.

<https://youtu.be/TibAGI7oG5Q>

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

Let's talk about Louis' album Walls. Now this album for many reasons would not make sense for any of the songs to be about Eleanor. Especially like the songs "Habit" which is love song where he mentions Princess Park where him and Harry used to live, "Always You" where he mentions he went to Amsterdam without someone after going to Amsterdam with Eleanor, "Too Young" and the overall concept of the song as well as the line "It's been two years since I've seen your face" etc. Not to mention that when his first ever debut album was dropped, there was no mention of anything from Eleanor. There is never any birthday posts from either of them as well.

Louis also claimed in an interview that he really likes the starting and ending line to his song Walls which says "nothing wakes you up like waking up alone." Why would he write that if he has a girlfriend?

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER [THE LEATHER JACKET]

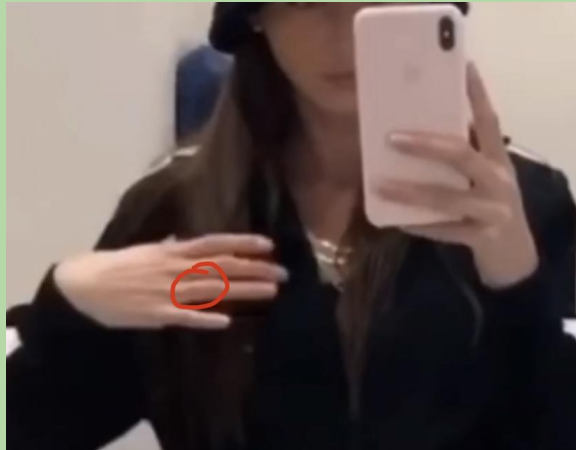

Not to mention the iconic leather jacket that Eleanor's supposed ex wears is featured in lots of her instagram posts.. hmm..

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER [HAND TATTOOS]

Eleanor supposedly has an L tattoo on her hand. But on October 20, 2020 she posted a video on her instagram story and was clearly not there. Either it was never actually inked into her skin and she drew it on, or it was edited in on in pictures. It also could have been removed or in the process of being removed. No matter what the case is, she wasn't at all trying to cover up the fact that it wasn't there

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER [HAND TATTOOS]

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER [I WILL SURVIVE]

<https://youtu.be/VU7InNHsiZQ>

- This performance done by Harry was the day after Louis and Eleanor had publicly split up.. Someone seems happy!!
- Not to mention that recently in October, the fandom had trended this on twitter and Gloria Gaynor even posted Harry's cover on her social media.

BEARD #2: ELEANOR CALDER

To finish off Eleanor, there's a video that a fan took where Louis says “I’m gay it’s pretty unfortunate isn’t it Eleanor”. Then one of the bodyguards says “would you like to be quiet”. Lastly Liam says “I can’t believe you said that”.

Photo Parallels

1:32

1:32 is a time stamp that has been associated with Louis and Harry for many different reasons. The main reason is because in Harry's song "She" one of the lines specifically mentions the time 1:32 in the lyrics. This time stamp is the exact time that Louis shows up in the One Direction music videos including Kiss You, Live While We're Young, History, What Makes You Beautiful, etc.

In Louis' song "Habit" the words "Princess Park" are sang at exactly 1:32 in the song.

There are many more situations where things involving 1:32 occur as well.

“SHE” REVERSED

This is definitely one of the more interesting theories that has been discovered, but also a very important one. The song “She” by Harry Styles is on his album Fine Line. Through some of Harry’s songs, he reverses some of his lyrics, for example in Sunflower Vol. 6 when the word “sunflower” is played backwards at the beginning of the song. In she, there are different parts that are reversed, and when they are played in regular time, sound like clear messages.

4:10-4:15 “Yes I want Lou”

4:30 “Promise me this is just a little heartbreak”

4:15 “He’s losing his voice”

LOUIS BLUE

This next section is going to be about the color blue, but a specific shade called “Louis Blue”
Or, this shade: this color can best be described as a greenish-soft blue.

This specific shade of blue has been seen in most things Harry does with his career.
Let's start with the examples:

LOUIS BLUE

Starting with the Falling music video, the walls in this music video can be seen in this photo being painted. Louis blue comes in all different varieties of light and dark shades, but it is obvious that the color on the wall is on that scale.

Not to mention that there is a picture of King Louis behind Harry in the music video

There is also a fish and ship on the piano in the music video!
(Tattoo, Adore You Mv)

LOUIS BLUE

A very high end boutique makes these custom tote bags for celebrities. They normally make them yellow like this one... but as you can see Harry's is a different color... Louis blue :)

LOUIS BLUE

Harry also wears a suit in his music video for Lights Up where the color of the suit is clearly shown as Louis Blue.

Harry also owns many handbags and clothing items in this specific shade of blue.

LOUIS BLUE

Harry also owns many suits in that specific shade, as well as handbags. This clip of text is from an interview with someone who helped Harry on the production of his Lights Up music video.

I was exhausted. I was in New York and Harry [Lambert] got in contact to say, 'Hey, I don't know if you're up for this but Harry would love you to do something for the next video.' All top secret, of course. All he sent me were two Pantone colours of blue with a note: 'It needs to be in this shade of blue; I can't tell you too much else.' And I was like, well, OK. And at the time I wasn't

The interview reads:

All top secret, of course. All he sent me were two Pantone colours of blue with a note. "It needs to be this shade of blue; I can't tell you too much else." And I was like, well, OK...

LOUIS BLUE

Don't forget the infamous Louis blue suit Harry wears in his Golden music video!

SHARED CLOTHES

The boys have also been spotted on multiple occasions wearing each others clothes. Sure, close friends share clothes, but Louis and Harry took it to a whole other level!

Shared Clothes

Music Video Parallels

Both music videos “Lights Up” by Harry Styles and “Walls” by Louis Tomlinson are very similar not only in the way that they have been filmed, but the concepts in general.

“Lights Up” is a song about accepting who you are and being open about sexuality. This being said the music video for the song was dropped on October 11, 2019 which is national coming out day. The music video includes Harry surrounded by women and men, kind of declaring his sexuality. Harry has been open about his sexuality in the past with his pride flags on stage as well as his infamous performance of his unreleased song “Medicine” where the lyrics read “The boys and the girls are in, I mess around with him, and I’m okay with it...” As far as his sexuality goes, it can be shown that he is bisexual, but does not like labels so he does not say that he is any sexuality.

Music Video Parallels

The song “Walls” can best be described as Louis fighting and overcoming these battles within himself or essentially, “walls” that he breaks down. In the Walls music video, Louis has an almost identical scene to Harry’s scene where he is surrounded by many people, but they have masks on their faces, so the gender is unknown... Notice how Harry is open about his sexuality but Louis has yet to be. Also in both music videos, Harry is on the back of a motorcycle with a motorcyclist who has a white helmet, while Louis has a motorcyclist in his video with a black helmet. There are scenes in both videos of them singing to themselves in mirrors as well.

Music Video Parallels

Also in Louis' music video, a scene is shown of Louis standing alone at a ballroom dance surrounded by men and women dancing together. Louis paces around the room and does not have any girl to dance with, and he appears to be waiting for someone. This scene is very important because of the limit of public display Louis and Harry could have with their relationship. In Harry's song "Sunflower Vol. 6" the lyrics read "Kiss in the kitchen like it's a dance floor" which is referring back to the dancing in private theory, and how Louis and Harry lived together. But there is still more.

Music Video Parallels

Here is a REAL tweet that can still be found on both of their accounts today, which Louis says “@Harry_Styles Fancy going ballroom dancing ?”

Which to Harry responds with “@Louis_Tomlinson i say we should old chap...away to it now?”

There have been many speculations that ballroom dancing could have been their own secret code in their relationship.

Music Video Parallels

In Harry's he is shown in water wherein Louis' video he is shown with fire, and overall both music videos are very similar to each other, not to mention the concepts of both of the songs in general.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

The video starts out with the man submerged underwater and he says “I always said I’d stop eventually. “The longer you go, the bigger the chance of messing it all up. The more you forget yourself. It’s time. The walls are closing fast.”

This line can relate to Louis talking about how he always said he was going stop, stop going along with everything management was making him do and cover up. The more he is pretending to be someone who he’s not, the more he’s forgetting who he really is. He needs to stop pretending before he totally forgets himself.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

Then we see the man and his girlfriend having a conversation where she says “Don’t do this, it won’t stop, [they] keep using you and using you.”

This relates to Louis and how Harry is trying to convince him to stop letting himself be used by people who are holding him back from being himself so that they can be free.

Then the man says “He’s always tough to me, you’re just worried something will happen.”

This is the side of Louis where he is telling himself that it’s fine and he needs to work it out himself because he is the problem, not the man in control.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

The man's girlfriend then says "Something will happen. If not this time, then the next. You're replaceable."

And the man says "I've got to do it."

The girlfriend then says "I know him better than you ever will, he's my dad. You need to get as far away from him as you can."

And the man replies with "Look, it's happening. I haven't got a choice."

This scene goes through how the girlfriend is telling him that he is replaceable and that she knows something bad will happen to him if he continues what he is doing. She wants him to get away, but he says he has to continue, he doesn't have a choice.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

Once the song “We Made It” is over, it shows the man standing in front of a mirror putting a mask over his face while we hear another man say “I've known you since you were a little kid. I loved your family. All I ask is for loyalty.”

This relates to how the bad guy has known Louis and had control over Louis since he was just a kid. All he is asking for is loyalty, so that Louis won't betray him, and his plan can work out just the way he wants it. So the man puts the mask over his face and continues to be someone who he is not.

Then, the song Don't Let It Break Your Heart Begins, and it starts with a scene of Louis and the man playing in a big game of football (soccer), and the man's girlfriend comes and visits him and is watching him play, like we have seen multiple times in the past when Harry has been at Louis' football games.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

Then, we cut to a scene where Louis, the man, and a bunch of friends are all out for drinks together at what appears to be some sort of bar or restaurant, and the bad guy walks in to where they are, and the man notices and is immediately uncomfortable, upset, and off guard.

We then cut to a scene where the man joins the bad guy with several other men in a meeting, and the bad guy is discussing a plan about what they are going to do, and he tells Louis himself how it is going to go, and Louis just quietly says okay and agrees to the plan because that is all he can do. Then the bad guy says “All you’ve gotta do is remember, put your f*cking mask on.”

This scene perfectly describes Louis being taken control over and being told exactly what he is supposed to do in order to keep the plan in place. Him being told to keep his mask on is perfect symbolization of being told to not let his real side show.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

After the meeting, the bad guy calls the man over and asks for a word with him.
The dialogue goes as shown:

Bad guy: "What's up?"

The man: What do you mean what's up?"

Bad guy: "You're not the same son, something's on your mind, why don't you tell me"

The man: "I'm fine"

Bad guy: Don't lie to me, Drew"

The man: "I was thinking after all this was done I could have a little breather."

Bad guy: "Are you asking me or are you telling me?"

The man: I'm telling you."

Bad guy: "I decide what you do and when you do it, understand? Good boy."

This scene basically breaks down how Louis is trying to tell the man in control that he is tired of everything, but he is not allowed to stop. He is being forced.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT

Then, the man steals the money, and takes everything that he gave to the bad guy back, and leaves without a trace. He wants to start over, find his girlfriend, and leave the bad guy and the past behind. The bad guy finds out that he is gone with all the money, and tells his men to go find him and hurt him.

The man finds his girlfriend at a concert and they reunite and are happy, and take off together on his motorcycle, and run away. The men find him and his girlfriend in a field, and he immediately jumps off of a cliff into water.

The men call the bad guy and tell him there is no way he could have survived the jump, and think he is dead. The man then comes out of the water, freshly shaved, shirt off, and reunites with his lover underneath the sunset on the beach and they live happily ever after.

WE MADE IT DIRECTOR'S CUT [CONCLUSION]

In conclusion, the entire video just basically goes through the story of a man and a woman, the man representing Louis, and the woman representing Harry. It goes through how he is forced to be someone who he is not and it is out of his control. In the end, he escapes from the bad men, hence leaving Syco music, and reunites and lives happily ever after with his lover.

Do with this information as you please...

ADORE YOU MUSIC VIDEO

Now, we are entering a section which is a huge proof in the Larry community. The Adore You music video starts with Harry putting rocks in his pocket walking into the ocean suggesting s*icide, when he discovers a dying fish out of water. He feels a connection to the fish and saves it from drying out. He takes him home with him and makes a place for him to live. But every morning when he wakes up the fish has grown double the size. One day there's news on the tv that his species of fish are migrating by Eroda

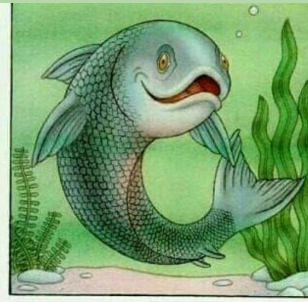

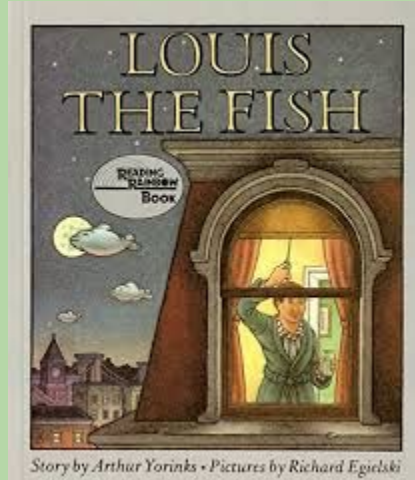

Music Video (extended): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yezDEWako8U>

ADORE YOU MUSIC VIDEO

Now what does this have to do with Louis? Funny you should ask considering the fact that the music video completely follows the storyline of a children's book titled

“Louis The Fish”

You can easily see the comparison between the book and the music video.

After a hard life, Louis was a happy fish.

ADORE YOU MUSIC VIDEO

The overall concept of the music video in general also relates to Louis and Harry and how they saved each other. Another important thing to note is in the beginning of the extended version of the Adore You music video, it shows a map, and on the map, Belfast and Leeds are the two locations next to each other. Leeds relates to the Leeds festival that was previously mentioned, and Belfast was the only One Direction show that has ever been cancelled, and the world still does not know why, however it was also the night Louis leaked Home.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

The Golden Music video came out on October 26, 2020 and fans all over the world immediately fell in love with it due to Harry's charismatic, goofy, and open personality he expresses throughout the video. Though many fans speculate different meanings behind this music video, Harry always leaves his music open to interpretation, so here's what we think!

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

To start, we want to make an introduction to the fanfiction published a few years ago called “Tired, Tired Sea”. This fanfiction storyline lines up very specifically with everything we got for Golden. Allow us to explain.

Starting with the lighthouse. The image on the left is directly from the fan fiction, and the image on the right is from the official eroda website. (If you don’t know what that is, it is a website created by Harry’s team sponsoring the storyline behind the adore you music video.)

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

This is also another comparison between the fanfic and Golden. The postcards shown at the top are on the official golden website, while the postcards at the bottom are from TTS... Notice anything similar?

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

In Tired Tired Sea, Louis owning a B&B is a very significant part of the whole story, and Harry added a B&B to his eroda website, which should speak for itself.

Summary:

As a B&B owner on the most remote of all the British Isles, Louis Tomlinson is used to spending the coldest half of the year in complete isolation, with his dog and the sea as sole companions. Until, one day, a mysterious stranger on a quest to rebuild himself rents a room for the winter.

That’s a thing he’s been doing recently, not just selecting playlists for them to listen to, but actually doubling the number of playlists on Louis’ account, creating random ones with quirky titles like ‘the feeling of sunshine on your face when you tilt your head back with your eyes closed’, ‘soft winter heart on a soft winter day’, or ‘songs to dance to when you don’t know how to dance’. There’s one titled ‘vintage heartbreak for a modern boy’ that Louis has surprised himself by falling in love with it, filled with old sad songs from the 50s, 60s and 70s in various lan-

“Just this novel,” Louis says unhelpfully, turning his attention back to the bookcase. “It’s a contemporary romance but it’s like... really funny. I think you’d like it and I could have fun doing the voices, but I can’t seem to find it.” Louis tuts before moving to the next bookcase. “Maybe someone’s swapped it.”

“You’re looking for a new book to read to me?” Harry says, sounding a little surprised.

Louis stops, one finger on the spine of a book. He turns around. “Unless you don’t want me to? It’s just... we’ve finished the short stories now, so.”

“No,” Harry says, trying to sit up without bothering Clifford. “No, I definitely want you to.” He pets along the side of Clifford’s body, trying to get him

“This... This is lovely,” Harry says, turning around to face Louis. He sounds sincere and almost impressed. Not for the first time, Louis wonders what on Earth brought this man here. “You have a big book selection, and that fireplace is great.” His eyes widen earnestly as he takes in the room. “I’m a bit surprised,” he admits.

“Take a book, leave a book? If people want to leave with a book they haven’t finished, they can just swap it for one of their own. I don’t mind. As long as I’ve got options for everyone, I’m not that fussed about which books I actually own. Besides, I’m always checking second-hand bookshops whenever I’m on the mainland. And so do most of the other residents.”

Harry looks down at the book still in his hand, then bites his lower lip. “The locals buy books for you?” he asks before passing a hand through his short hair, messing it up even further. Some strands are curling against his temple in a way that makes

This relates to the long section that describes the B&B Louis owns in the story that describes how there is a whole book selection. In the story, Harry compliments the book selection as well as the fireplace.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

The picture on the left is another passage from TTS, and the image on the right is a video of a dog swimming in water that HSHQ posted to promote their golden filter.

"Do you have to encourage my dog to go swimming every single time we're down here?" Louis asks, pretending to be annoyed when Clifford runs in the water to grab the tennis ball Harry just threw in there.

There's not much that would stop his stupid pet from running into the freezing water, but Louis often tries to limit the damage so he doesn't have a big lump of fur trailing water everywhere in the cottage.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

Now onto the concept of the actual music video, we can see that throughout the whole video, Harry is shown running, which is speculated that it could represent Harry running from the past, out of the tunnel into a new life.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

And then we have
this parallel between the Golden music video and the We Made It Director's
Cut which also speaks volumes

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

Then we get a scene where it appears Harry is trying to pull someone out from underwater, as well as scenes where he is seen through a fisheye view, representing that the video is from the point of view of the fish. And it was discussed earlier who the fish could be representing.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

Then we have the back cover of the previously mentioned book, Louis The Fish, where a hat with strings and a pair of pants is shown. Well let's take a look at what Harry is wearing...

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

As it has been shown, there has been multiple parallels in Louis and Harry's music videos that involve a motorcycle including Kill My Mind,, Walls, Lights Up, etc.

In the Golden music video, at exactly 1:32 a motorcycle is driving by Harry in the car.

Then, at timestamp 1:58, Harry walks right by a motorcycle with a green helmet and blue jacket, with a smirk on his face like he knows something.

GOLDEN MUSIC VIDEO

Now into what Harry is wearing jewelry wise. In the music video, Harry is wearing these pieces from the shop Eliou Eliou.

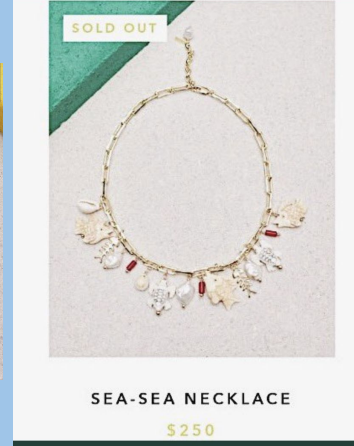

A blue “Harry” necklace, which was named after him.

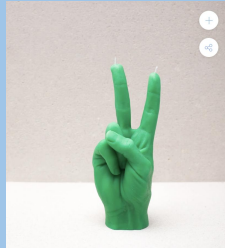

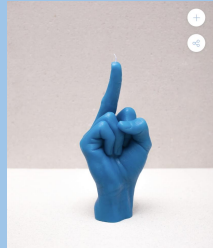

A necklace that says the word “Tired” on it (TTS)

“Lou Lou” bracelet

“Sea-Sea” necklace (TTS)

The shop is also well known for these candles which are Louis and Harry’s signature poses in their colors.

IN CONCLUSION....

In conclusion, Louis and Harry to us and to so many other people are more than just a made up ship or a theory. In reality, the only actual proof you need is the look in their eyes when they look at each other. They are soulmates. Whether that means romantically or not, they are meant to be. This presentation is just the beginners guide to Larry Stylinson. New proof and things come out pretty much on a daily basis, so don't think this is the end!!
